Re: Pamela Neu

I have had the honor and good pleasure of knowing Pamela and Jay since their conversions. I was their pastor for those beginning years and it was apparent from the outset that God has given them special gifts.

I have ministered with them and had both Pamela and Jay to minister in our church in Long Beach, CA. Pamela is especially used of God in the area of healing and deliverance. Jay has a special gift of prophetic encouragement that strengthens believers.

You would do well to consider this team for your church or special ministry event.

I recommend them unequivocally as genuine and anointed servants that will make a difference.

Kindest Regards,
